PRESS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ENEMIES OF FREEDOM abound throughout the world. From petty warlords plotting to take over America, but really capable of only conquering the next village of mud huts, to the seriously dangerous ENEMIES OF FREEDOM, lurking in corporate boardrooms, in the halls of Congress, and in our own Whitehouse, the world is becoming an extremely dangerous place for peace loving people and genuine FREEDOM FIGHTERS.

Just who are these ENEMIES OF FREEDOM and how do we recognize them? One has only to review human history in order to discover fundamental similarities found in WAR MONGERS and SABER RATTLERS over the last few thousand years.

Their characteristics include lust for power, huge self-righteous egos, unmitigated greed, an unstated desire to dominate other people, and an ability to convincingly talk peace and freedom on the one hand, while plotting war and enslavement on the other.

The most dangerous ENEMIES OF FREEDOM are those who have the most to gain by creating chaos, confusion, and fear, leading to war and its inherent loss of basic freedoms and human rights.

These include, but are certainly not limited to, the manufacturers of the weapons of war, those who will profit from oiling and maintaining the machines and infrastructures of military might, career officers who can never be promoted during times of peace, and the politicians who can retain and consolidate their power in times of crises.

The secondary ENEMIES OF FREEDOMS are those who gain from the aftermath of strife and warfare, such as the corporations that profit from the rebuilding of the countries damaged or destroyed during a military operation. The others who gain are the corporations that profit from the exploitation of the resources of the conquered peoples.

We must be ever vigilant if we are to protect and preserve the freedoms we have long taken for granted in America. They are rapidly being eroded, one notch at a time while the ENEMIES OF FREEDOM plot in secret to undermine our basic human rights, as well as to undermine the efforts of peace loving peoples and nations to build a safer and more humane world.
